A WORD FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Happy New Year to all, I hope everyone had an enjoyable Christmas. Hasn't the last year just flown? I can remember as a boy in school thinking about how much time dragged on, and my grandfather telling me to enjoy it while it lasted, because the older you get, the faster time goes...how true his words proved to be. It's been a hot and dry start to the year; hopefully we will see a change before show season kicks off.

On that note LWQHPA is holding a beginner show at Gatton indoor arena on 20th January. All are welcome, horses don't need to be registered, just $5/class and $10 if you aren't a member to cover insurance. It's a great opportunity to get started in showing or to get your young ones out to their first show with no pressure, as they are all either beginner horses or handlers, and the judges will offer advise if you need any. Would be great to see some more people out there having a go, and maybe starting a future of horse showing, it can be a personally rewarding experience, there are a lot of friendly people out there and most are only too happy to lend a hand if possible.

I would like to take this opportunity to urge members if at all possible to at least try and support your local show. Horse numbers have been slowly decreasing at most shows and we have seen cutting of classes from the program and in some cases cutting of an entire breed section. Without community support I fear we will start to see show societies start to close down some of the shows, so please get out and give them the support they need. I look forward to see you all out and about.

Andrew Scott

PHPA Inc President

FROM THE EDITOR: I wish to apologise for an omission in the previous newsletter, a portion of the minutes from the Dec 2012 AGM was inadvertently cut from the page while formatting the newsletter – the PHPA Championship Show will be a closed show for PHPA members and horses as a result in favour by ballot vote.

If any member wishes to see the minutes from the AGM in their entirety please contact the Secretary who will be happy to forward a copy of the minutes to you. If you have any articles you would like shared with members, or photos, advertisements etc please send them for inclusion in the next newsletter to William tobero@live.com

The President, committee members and a large number of PHPA members received an email on 15 Dec from Carol Spann. The committee and points score officer have looked into Carol's concerns including Maxine Williams not being listed in the awards presented. A trophy for their horse was received by Peter; Maxine was not the recipient of an award - this is not the result of unfair treatment by Sandie Johnson or any committee member as suggested by Carol. All trophy recipients were listed appropriately. At no point during the AGM and awards presentation did any person attending exhibit a negative attitude toward either Carol or Amanda Smith, the meeting was conducted in a polite and friendly manner as those who attended will confirm. The Newsletter Editor has addressed the missing portion of the AGM minutes.
