

PHPA Inc Social Media Policy

Social networking sites such as Facebook are a great way of communicating in this day and age. It allows people to communicate on a daily basis no matter where they live in the world. As you are aware however, the use of some social networking sites can be fraught with danger if used irresponsibly. The Pinto Horse & Pony Association Inc will not tolerate the use of social networking sites to facilitate or broadcast denigration of the Association or individuals within it, whether they are Committee or Members.

The PHPA has adopted this social media policy which addresses the making of derogatory, derisive, inflammatory and defamatory comments relating to the Association or any of its Events, Committee & Members. Breach of this policy will result in a member or members being subject to disciplinary action determined by the Committee. PHPA have found it necessary to implement and enforce this policy to maintain the integrity the Association as a strong, cohesive and reputable organization.
